

Paddle the Queen's River all season.

Six paddles and the pass has paid for itself.

Two miles up the Queen's River and back, past the falls and the mill. No shuttle, no portage, free parking. Kayak, paddle, life jacket, dry bag and a map every time. A season pass covers that trip as many times as you care to take it.

River Pass

One paddler, one boat. Unlimited Queen's River trips all season.

$165

$195 AFTER APRIL 30

Household Pass

Everyone at your address. Two boats a visit, or one tandem.

$255

$295 AFTER APRIL 30

Mill & River Pass

Household paddling, two mill tours, 10% off the shop all season, first look at Johnny Cake Festival tickets, and a bag of Johnny Cake Meal.

$349

$399 AFTER APRIL 30

BRING SOMEONE

Two guest paddles come with every pass. After that your guests pay 25% less.

THE OTHER RIVERS

Pass holders take 25% off the Wood River and Pawcatuck trips, shuttle included.

TUESDAY MORNINGS

A standing members' paddle every Tuesday. No charge and no sign-up. Just show up.

Early-bird pricing ends April 30. It does not get extended. Pick your pass up at the mill shop.

Queen's River Kayaks

21 Glen Rock Road, West Kingston, Rhode Island · 401.284.3945 · queensriverkayaks.com

At Kenyon's Grist Mill, grinding on the Queen's River since 1696.